

BIO

After 20 years teaching 5th and 6th graders, Andi MacDonald leapt at the opportunity to pursue a lifelong dream of exploring food. She went on to earn a degree at a local culinary school, interned at Chez Panisse and is a certified sommelier. She gives cooking demos, caters private events, and teaches cooking classes. Her cooking passions have taken her to China, representing the US as a chef at the International Food Exposition in Nanjing; and to Europe, Armenian and Mexico for classes and jaunts to their outdoor markets. She enjoys the benefits of a year-round, edible garden and is compiling vegan recipes for a plant-based cookbook.
